

THE RACE PROBLEM.

Bishop L. H. Holsey, of Texas, has a scheme to colonize Texas and drive Negro States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—At the meeting of the colored men's convention Friday, Bishop L. H. Holsey, of Texas, proposed to the members an entirely new scheme for the solution of the race problem. His idea is to have the Negroes build up a separate government of their own, but instead of deporting them to Africa, as advocated by Bishop Turner, of Georgia, he would have this move, of the colored man located within the United States.

Bishop Holsey explains his proposition as follows: There is but one way to solve this problem and that is separation and segregation. That is, the Negro race must occupy a state or states and hold territory to themselves. To make this movement effective 1,500,000 voters should sign a petition to congress to set apart a sufficient amount of the public domain with proper legislative restrictions by which a state or states may be erected which will be distinctly Negro states, having all the rights, powers, privileges, functions and political facilities given other states in the union.

If this can be accomplished the black man would derive all the benefits and advantages for development that make a people intelligent, thoughtful and noble.

The removal of the Negro to such a state or states would settle the great problem as far as the Negro is concerned, and would relieve the south of many a side issue in the social and political world.

When asked what portion of the United States had been selected by the advocates of the scheme, Bishop Holsey replied: "Oklahoma and New Mexico have been mentioned, but we have not got so far with the project that we feel in a position to select any particular territory."

ON CONDITION.

M. Guerin Will Surrender on His Own Conditions and Refuse to Accept Those Proposed by Gen. Jacquy.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—M. Guerin decided Friday night to energetically maintain his own propositions and refused to accept those proposed by Gen. Jacquy. M. Guerin's decision not to surrender was delivered after a deputation of the national defense group had waited on him and informed him of the contents of the semi-official note.

Gen. Jacquy and M. Firmin Faure, revisionist and anti-Semite, a deputy from Oran, Algeria, had numerous interviews during the day with members of the chamber of deputies and also with Premier Waldeck-Rousseau, whereupon Gen. Jacquy submitted his proposition for surrender.

It is now said M. Lasles, deputy from the Condon district of the Geers, has decided to discontinue further negotiations with M. Guerin. Gen. Jacquy, who is a republican member of the chamber of deputies, is also discouraged and has left Paris.

A semi-official note issued Friday night says:

"Having consideration for humanity above all other things, the government from the beginning discarded the idea of storming M. Guerin's house or the seizure of the accused by mere force. Measures for preventing M. Guerin from communicating with the outside world, as well as preventing or dispersing all assemblages, will be maintained, however, as long as possible."

HORRIBLE MURDER.

Boy Swung Up From a Barn Rafter at Murray City—Two Men Arrested and Held on Suspicion.

MURRAY CITY, O., Aug. 19.—George Simko, 14, was found dead in a barn by his sister Friday. Saloonist John Namet, his stepfather, sent him out to feed the horses.

The young man being at the barn so long, his sister went out to see what was wrong, finding him dead in the haymow. Foul play was suspected. Search was made and a rope was found, which showed that the boy had been hanged and cut down.

At the coroner's inquest it was found that the boy's neck was broken. Marks around the neck also show prints of the rope. Two men were seen at the barn just before the boy was found.

Two arrests have been made, Rube and Mohlon Lanning, from New Pittsburgh, O. They were seen to go through the saloon toward the barn. Marshal Wm. Channell, a Surtos City deputy, made the arrests.

Business Portion Destroyed.

BOISE, Ida., Aug. 19.—The town of Placerville, in Boise county, was wiped out by fire. The business portion of the place was destroyed and most of the residences. The loss is estimated at $250,000.

First Ten Regiment's Fall.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The number of enlisted men Thursday was 509, making a total of 14,429. Even with the discharges that have been made there are a sufficient number to fill the first ten regiments.

GEN. JIMINEZ ARRESTED.

Just as He Was About to Sail From Cienfuegos Capt. Stamper Apprehended Him—Says It Is an Outrage.

HAVANA, Aug. 19.—In view of the fact that Col. Bacallao, chief of the secret police, persisted in his declaration that Gen. Juan Isidor Jimenez, the aspirant to the presidency of Santo Domingo, was in Havana, either not having left or having returned the military authorities telegraphed to Cienfuegos instructing Capt. Stamper, collector of customs there, to ascertain whether Jimenez was on the Menendez steamer and to take him under arrest if that should be the case.

Just as the steamer was about leaving Cienfuegos, Capt. Stamper located Jimenez and arrested him. Jimenez denounced the arrest as an outrage. He said he had broken no law and would not yield except to force. Capt. Stamper replied that he was ready to use force if necessary and Jimenez then yielded, remarking that he did so only because he could not help himself.

Senor Frias, mayor of Cienfuegos, refused to make the arrest, claiming that Gen. Jimenez was an old personal friend, whom he had known intimately for years. When Jimenez was taken into custody, Senor Frias was found with a police inspector in close conversation with Jimenez and the latter's secretary; it is believed the mayor was urging him to leave the steamer, to conceal himself and to wait for a better opportunity. Capt. Stamper informed Jimenez that he would make him as comfortable as possible, and after Jimenez and his secretary had packed their trunks they were driven, accompanied by the chief of police and Capt. Stamper, to the Union hotel, where two bedrooms and a diningroom were placed at their disposal.

Gen. Jimenez will be kept under police charge until further advice is received from the governor general. There is much excitement among the people of Cienfuegos over the affair. The sentiment is generally expressed that the authorities had no right to arrest Jimenez, an unarmed citizen, going apparently to Santiago de Cuba, and the point is even made that if he were going to San Domingo, he would only be returning to his native country.

Senor Aybor, a representative of Jimenez, left Cienfuegos for Santiago de Cuba last Tuesday, after remaining at the former place ten days. It is believed he tried to fit out an expedition, as a small schooner was found lying outside the harbor, supposed to be awaiting a cargo of ammunition.

Aybor had taken out clearance papers for Key West several days before.

OFF THE BRIDGE.

Portion of a Passenger Train on the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf Railroad Goes Into Little River.

TEXARKANA, Tex., Aug. 19.—A message has just been received here to the effect that a north-bound passenger train on the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railroad went into Little River, 50 miles north of here. A switch engine, with crew, has left for the scene. The wreck is between stations, and it is not known how much of the train went off the bridge. It is known, however, that the baggage, express and mail cars went in.

The Shamrock at New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Shamrock, the British yacht that is to compete for the American cup, arrived at New York Friday. After the yacht had anchored in the upper bay Capt. Archie Hogarth, of the Shamrock, said: "The Shamrock behaved beautifully. I am more than satisfied with her. In fact, I am delighted, because my most sanguine anticipations have been more than realized. But I will say this, that gleeful as I am with the behavior of the boat, I was more surprised with the generous reception which she got from the time that we were abreast of Sandy Hook."

Glorot Not the Assassin.

RENNER, Aug. 19.—Glorot, who claims to have been the man who attempted to assassinate M. Labori, was brought to Rennes Friday evening. Col. Picquart, M. Gast and others who saw the would-be assassin, declare Glorot was not the man. The prisoner has written a letter to the police making an alleged confession and glorifying in the crime. The doctors say he is insane.

Yellow Jack at Port Limon, Costa Rica. WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Surgeon General Wyman was Friday notified by Surgeon Carson, stationed at Port Limon, Costa Rica, of the appearance of one case of yellow fever at that place. This is one of the eight American ports, at which the marine hospital service has an official stationed to report promptly on the appearance of yellow fever. This is the first that has been reported at any of the fruit ports this season.

The Children Safe.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Susan Cutter, living in the outskirts of the city, Friday afternoon attached the family horse to a road wagon, and with her three little children started to drive down town. Within a short distance the horse started on a runaway. Mrs. Cutter was thrown out and fatally hurt internally, besides which she suffered a broken arm. The little children clung to the wagon, and after a long run the horse finally turned homeward, where he arrived safely with the little ones unhurt.

TICKED FIVE CENTURIES.

The Famous Old Town Clock in Rouen Has Kept Time for 510 Years.

Rouen, one of the principal cities of France, and the greatest seat of its cotton manufacture, possesses the oldest public clock in the world. The great Rouen clock has held its place in that city for 510 years and is the pride of its citizens. Placed in 1389, it has been running without interruption from that day to this, requiring nothing except cleaning and a few trifling repairs of its accessory parts. The great clock had so accustomed the citizens to look upon its exactitude as a matter of course that when, in 1872, the breaking of a wire prevented its sounding five o'clock one morning, the population was in a state of consternation.

The magistrates summoned the custodian—Guillaume Petit—and remonstrated gravely with him. Until 1712 the great clock had no pendulum. For 323 years it had no other regulator than a "foliot," an apparatus unknown to the majority of modern clockmakers. The pendulum in clockwork was introduced in 1659, but so well satisfied were the people of Rouen with the time-keeping qualities of their famous old clock that 53 years were allowed to pass before a pendulum was substituted for the "foliot." Equipped with this new apparatus it has continued to this day to strike the hours and chime the quarters.

AMERICAN GIRL'S RETORT.

Her Quick Wit and Knowledge of French Once Stood Her in Good Stead.

As one of our countrywomen was going down the rather narrow stairs that lead from the house to the garden, at the American embassy, she met three or four young attaches of foreign legations, who were entire strangers to her, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Their politeness induced them to stand aside for her to pass, but their courtesy did not prevent their making audible personal comments. They seemed to take it for granted that French was an unknown tongue to Americans.

"Look at her yellow dress; it's very pretty," said No. 1. "Yes, but she has on white gloves," announced No. 2. "She has good teeth," said No. 3. "And an enormous mouth," added No. 4.

"And she understands French perfectly," said the owner of the enormous mouth, turning suddenly upon them, "and would like to say that her ears are even bigger than her mouth." This in French and with such an air of giving impersonal information to nobody in particular, that it was quite as if she had been kindly helping strangers to information out of a guide book. The men had just enough presence of mind to flee the premises.

Why Women Fight Senachness. "Are women more subject to senachness than men?" An Atlantic captain replies: "Yes, but, on the other hand, they stand it better. A woman struggles up to the point of despair against the what I might call the impropriety of the thing. She isn't so much tortured by the pangs as she is worried by the prospect of becoming disheveled, haggard and dragged. She fights against it to the last and keeps up appearances as long as she can hold up her head."

Typhoid from Flies.

Dr. H. O. Howard, the entomologist of the agricultural department, is credited by a Washington correspondent with saying that it is the judgment of the highest authorities that a considerable part of the typhoid in camps during the Spanish war was due to the flies, which carried the contagion.

THE MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.
LIVESTOCK—Cattle common	3.30 @ 4.25
Not butchered	5.00 @ 5.10
CALVES—Fair to good light	5.50 @ 7.00
HOGS—Common and heavy	4.00 @ 4.25
Mixed packers	4.00 @ 4.70
Light shippers	4.00 @ 4.50
SHEEP—Choice	2.80 @ 3.10
LAMBS—Spring	5.50 @ 6.50
FLOUR—Winter patent	3.25 @ 3.50
GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red	65 @ 71
No. 3 red	62 @ 67
Corn—No. 2 mixed	65 @ 72 1/2
Oats—No. 2	25 @ 27
Hay—Prime to choice	63 @ 30
PROVISIONS—Mess Pork	10 @ 10 1/2
Lard	6 @ 5 1/2
BUTTER—Choice dairy	17 @ 17 1/2
Apple creamery	15 @ 17
APPLES—Choice fancy	1.25 @ 1.35
POTATOES—New per bushel	1.25 @ 1.40
CHICAGO.
FLOUR—Winter patent	3.45 @ 3.55
GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red	65 @ 71 1/2
No. 3 Chicago spring	60 @ 67 1/2
Corn—No. 2	35 @ 38
OATS—No. 2 white	26 @ 28 1/2
PORK—Mess	7.00 @ 8.25
LARD—Steam	5.15 @ 5.25
NEW YORK.
FLOUR—Winter patent	3.70 @ 3.80
WHEAT—No. 2 red	65 @ 70 1/2
CORN—No. 2 mixed	35 @ 37 1/2
OATS—No. 2 white	26 @ 28 1/2
PORK—New Mess	6.75 @ 8.00
LARD—Western	5.00 @ 5 1/2
BALTIMORE.
FLOUR—Family	2.25 @ 2.55
GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red	71 1/2 @ 72
Southern	67 @ 70 1/2
Corn—Mixed	30 1/2 @ 30 3/4
OATS—No. 2 white	26 @ 28 1/2
Hay—No. 2 western	45 @ 50 1/4
CATTLE—First quality	4.80 @ 5.00
HOGS—Western	4.90 @ 5.10
INDIANAPOLIS.
GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red	65 @ 68 1/2
Corn—No. 2 mixed	45 @ 52
Oats—No. 2 white	25 @ 27
LOUISVILLE.
FLOUR—Winter patent	3.40 @ 3.55
GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red	70 @ 71
Corn—Mixed	24 @ 34 1/4
Oats—Mixed	22 @ 23 1/4
PORK—Mess	6 @ 6 1/2
LARD—Steam	5 @ 5 1/2

LAWYER'S ODD CLIENT.

He Did Not Want Advice, But Paid for the Privilege of Talking for One Hour.

A junior member of a Dearborn street law firm, reports the Chicago Tribune, tells this story of one of his first clients:

"I had just been appointed junior member of the firm and relieved the older members by looking after the minor cases. One day a well-dressed man called at the office and inquired if I could give him an hour of my time and what would be the cost. I told him, and he accepted the terms, but added: 'This is not to be a consultation. I do not want advice or assistance. I know perfectly well what I am going to do, but I want to talk. I have no friend to whom I can unburden myself, but if I pay you to listen I shall have a right to talk to you freely for the time agreed upon.'

"I agreed to this strange proposition and appointed an hour at noon the following day. The man came promptly, and I took out cigars and told the office boy we were not to be disturbed for an hour.

"Mind," the man said, "I don't want you to interrupt me. I am paying you to listen."

"Then he began. For one hour he talked as one who never in his life had unburdened himself to a sympathetic listener. I listened without saying a word. When the clock struck one the man ceased talking, paid his fee, took up his hat and walked out.

"Six months later, looking over the daily paper, the story of a suicide at one of the hotels attracted my attention. The name was that of my talkative client. I have always believed that if he had had some one to talk to again he would not have committed suicide."

HER PENCIL GAVE HER AWAY.

This Girl Betrayed Her Calling by Wearing It in Her Hair.

A girl attired in a white Marseilles suit that had a tailor-made finish walked down the aisle of one of the theaters one night recently with the air of a princess just in from her summer palace. She was accompanied by a young man who had an opulent appearance. The girl sank into an orchestra chair, adjusted her glass, and tried to look bored, while her escort glanced at the boxes, says the Chicago Inter Ocean.

The women in the row back of the two imposing young persons seemed to be impressed. They studied the braiding on the girl's white Eton jacket, and furtively admired the scarf on her sailor hat. They whispered approving comments on the summer costume. Then the curtain went up, and the girl removed her headgear.

The leading lady had just appeared when one of the women back of the girl clutched her companion's arm and whispered:

"Cash!" There was a piercing scorn in her tone that made it carry. The girl in white heard it and spasmodically put her right hand up to the coil of pretty blonde hair. Then she flushed a painful crimson.

Stuck among the shell hairpins was a bit of lead pencil with a piece of soiled rubber in the end. The horrid women who had envied her as the possible daughter of a millionaire had guessed that she was a clerk in a downtown department store.

WHY HE WEPT.

His Mother Told the Chubby Uncle Where and How He Had Been Hurt.

A very fat little boy with chubby legs that stuck out at right angles from his watermelon-shaped body sat in a Georgetown car one day. His fond mamma was engrossed in "saying sheing" and "saying heing" with her companion, and Master Chunk made up his mind that he'd like to look out of the window. He rolled over and climbed up on the seat, says the Washington Post.

"Now, don't do that," said mamma. "You know you've had one awful fall to-day doing that, so sit right down."

"Where did I fall, ma?" he piped, shrilly.

"In the street car," "Did I hurt myself?" he asked.

"Yes," she answered.

"Where?" and he looked anxious.

"On the hand," his mother replied.

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that would have made the bull of Bashan green with envy. All the way up to High street mamma was busy comforting him. She had recalled a painful circumstance to him and he wept—

Master Chunk raised one cushion of a hand to his head, and then, without the slightest warning, he let up a roar that